CARON LAUNCHES NEW WEBSITE

At CARON, we're "Opening Doors for Scientists" and are proud to announce the launch of our newly redesigned website:

www.caronproducts.com

This user-friendly site offers up-to-date information on our complete product offering. Downloadable pdf files of our literature and operations manuals are available, as well as Quick Quote requests, warranty registration, and representative contact information.

NEW 6540 SERIES PHOTOSTABILITY LITERATURE NOW AVAILABLE

CARON's 6540 Series Photostability Chambers are described and illustrated in our new 4-page, full color brochure. Standard Features, Main Screen Display, Serviceability, Specifications, and Optional Accessories are highlighted. For a hard copy of the brochure, email jabicht@caronproducts.com or visit the Library on our website at:

<http://caronproducts.com/33>

CE MARK AVAILABLE ON TWO MORE CARON UNITS

The Model CRSY102-4 Universal Condensate Recirculating System and the Model 6105-3 Fingerprint Development Chamber now carry the CE Mark. With the inclusion of these two popular models, all major products are now available with the CE Mark. For further information, contact our Engineering Department (bdotterer@caronproducts.com).
